

(JULY 23 – AUGUST 22)

Traits and Characteristics

Leo is a king. Its symbol is the king of the forest in the same way its lord Sun is king of all the planets. And so, the people born under this zodiac naturally tend to possess royal qualities.

If there are no ill effects on the sun, then the Leo will be of a generous nature and will possess an attractive personality.

When others see them, they are attracted toward Leo natives and show respect towards them. By nature, they have the natural qualities of leadership and are normally very organized. Driven by will-power, they can be successful in any field.

The Sun represents politeness and greatness, so Leo natives also perform their tasks with politeness and prefer tasks of a large scale. Their thinking is always of a higher level and it becomes difficult for them to tolerate absurdity and inferiority in other people.

Leos are very frank, open-hearted, and ambitious. But, if these qualities are not developed, they tend to become pompous. Some of the basic defects in the Leo natives are flattery and arrogance, especially if a particular task is not done according to their standards.

Subsequently, Leo natives cannot survive without praise and flattery. Negative traits in Leo natives include wearing gaudy clothes, boasting, ego, arrogance, and a crooked nature.
