

VIRGO

(AUGUST 23 – SEPTEMBER 22)

Traits and Characteristics

As the name suggests, Virgo natives are very shy and hesitant like a virgin, and if somebody touches their body, they squeeze with shyness like a touch-me-not plant. They are very hesitant in having sexual relations with others. Due to this nature of theirs, mostly remain unmarried for a long time.

Just like a virgin, Virgo natives are very silent, peace loving, systematic in their work, and more diplomatic than other signs, as they believe in serving others. They follow every instruction very carefully and completely and are capable of distinguishing good from bad.

They can reach to the roots of most of problems and find solutions. Virgo natives are critical by birth. Therefore, they think carefully before choosing friends. They analyze clearly and their decision and opinion is based on reality. They have a natural ability of acquiring knowledge about new subjects.

When negative qualities in them develop, Virgo natives will constantly speak ill of others and criticize them.

Even still, they believe in maintaining their personality, their life, and their home according to their own desires and wishes.

Virgo natives are also very intelligent and have a very strong memory. They are successful in performing work in which others do not succeed, and unless they reach their goal, they don't sit quietly.
