

CANCER

(JUNE 21 – JULY 22)

Traits and Characteristics

Cancer belongs to the water element, its triangle's first zodiac sign. According to ancient astrologers, this name was given because the sun's movement in the sky appears as moving in front and back, like a crab.

This habit is found in all Cancer natives. They always move forward or come backwards in their work and decisions. This continuous flow is also found in terms of their destiny, as up and downs are very common for them in life. This type of nature is because of the moon, which is the lord of cancer, and its nature is also changing in fifteen days; growing and reducing.

To understand a Cancer native's nature, we have to keep in mind one special quality about them: When a crab holds an item in its claws, it tightens its grip around it, never ready to let go, even though it may lose its claws for doing so.

Likewise, Cancer natives have a strong emotion of getting attached to their loved ones and ideas. This nature provides them with the qualities of receptiveness, attentiveness, and courage.

By nature, Cancer natives are very sentimental. If someone says something to them, they think about that for hours and allow it to have a great impact on them. Their mood changes very frequently.

Natives are bestowed with good imaginative power. They use this to make things appear larger than they are, not only for themselves, but for others as well. They possess good memory and because of this, the past is very important to them.
