

♊ GEMINI

(MAY 21 – JUNE 20)

Traits and Characteristics

The sign Gemini is symbolized by a pair; a man and a woman. A single human brain itself IS so marvellous, but when two brains combine and work as one, the possibilities are endless.

Whatever is possible by the relation of man and woman is discernible in a Gemini. It is the first sign of the air element in the zodiac system. Its lord, Mercury, is the messenger of God and represents the head in of the human body. In its one head, two minds are always active.

As it is a dual-natured sign, it always seeks two different ways to go about things and its mood is constantly changing; sometimes very serious, other times wandering, talkative, gloomy, or gleeful, like rain and scorching sun at the same time.

Mercury endows Gemini natives with many qualities in abundance, like an interest in many fields, morals skills, the ability to read others' minds, foresightedness, versatility, etc. If a Gemini is determined on working, then no one can be as fast, as decorous, or as successful in doing that job as a Gemini. His or her only weakness is that they cannot work for long.

Gemini are also very eloquent and can easily win over the hearts of people. When in the mood, he or she listens to what others say, but most of the time, they primarily do the speaking. Gemini natives cannot stay in one place for long and love to keep moving. They like the fastest modes of transportation, and monotony is almost like a slow death.
