

SAGITTARIUS

(NOVEMBER 22 – DECEMBER 21)

Traits and Characteristics

Sagittarius' nature is revealed by an archer, which is representative of this zodiac sign. The archer concentrates and focuses on hitting the target head on in the same way Sagittarius natives try to move toward their target without a pause. There is a strong feeling to move ahead in the nature of the Sagittarius. There are three directions in which they can move ahead: materialistic atmosphere, visionary interest and knowledge, and spiritual development. The path which they choose can be determined only after seeking their horoscopes and planetary positions.

One main quality of the Sagittarius is strong feelings toward independence. They cannot tolerate any kind of control over their lives, their views, or occupation. Due to a trusting nature, they should protect themselves from being too optimistic and having too much faith in someone else.

Sagittarians are open-hearted and outspoken. They may sometimes become very frank in their behavior, as this energetic and exited nature expects others to behave properly as they do; those under this sign cannot bear cunningness and treachery.

From the beginning, Sagittarians show optimistic attitudes toward life. Sometimes in speech, work, or behavior, they show exaggeration, which creates enemies and opponents. Instead of living in a civilized society with luxuries, they prefer to stay close to nature, which provides them happiness. They avoid highly populated areas and love to stay at open places with less population. As they have faith in future, they sometimes love to take risky opportunities.
