

TAURUS

(APRIL 20 – MAY 20)

Traits and Characteristics

Taurus belongs to the earth element and is a stable zodiac sign. In the EARTH triangle (Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn) this is the first zodiac sign, but its lord is Venus, which belongs to the water element.

Even though the Taurus natives appear to be serious, when their ego gets a slight jolt or any work is done against their wishes, they swell their nostrils like the bull and start hissing like a snake.

Male Taurus natives have broad shoulders, thick necks, and broad foreheads. Female Taurus natives are tall, but have short arms and legs. Taurus natives are stable, firm, and have a great attraction towards work. They do not like frequent changes and want to lead a peaceful life. If a sudden change takes place they become restless, and it is then more difficult for them to make compromises with opponents or circumstances.

Taurus natives by nature are very social. They get maximum pleasure and happiness when get a chance to welcome their friends and relatives. They love beauty, art and music. On the stage of life, they play any character (role) very successfully and are usually successful as musicians, actors and artists.

Taurus natives' loving nature also makes them authoritative. This gives birth to hatred and jealousy, but this may not have any relevant reason behind it. For their loved ones, their sacrifice will be of the highest level, but when they hate someone they will not forgive them may be in their lifetime.
